SECOND EDITION.

South Carolina Lawlessness.

Testimony of Judge Wiggin, of the Circuit Court.

Governor Chamberlain's Action Fully Sustained.

FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL, November 3, 1876.

COLUMBIA, S. C., November 3, 1876.

Hon. Z. Chandler, Chairman Republican National Committee:

The following statement has been received here to-day: Judge Wiggins is the presiding Judge of the circuit, which embraces the counties of Aiken and Barnwell, specially included in my proclamation and that of the President of the United States. Judge Wiggins has just visited the actual scenes of the domestic violence and insurrection, and speaks from personal observations and examination.

AIKEN, S. C., November 3, 1876.

GOVERNOR D. H. CHAMBERLAIN—Dear Sir: Your communication requesting an expression of my views with regard to your proclamation is just received. In my judgment the condition of affairs in certain portions of Aiken and Barnwell counties demanded just such action as your Excellency has taken. Domestic violence, instituted doubtless from political motives, certainly prevailed in those counties, and to an extent beyond the control of the civil authorities; and I have no doubt that the stationing of troops there has prevented the killing of hundreds of unarmed and inoffensive colored citizens.

Very respectfully,

[Signed] P. L. WIGGIN,
Judge Second Judicial Circuit Court.

I present this testimony to the country as that of the only Judge of this State who has any knowledge, personal or official, of the facts stated by me in justification of my recent action.

[Signed] D. H. CHAMBERLAIN,
Governor of South Carolina.

CRIMINAL RECORD.

A Brute Escaped His Just Deserts.

NEW YORK, November 3.—Captain Josiah S. Gundie, late master of the ship St. Mark, who has been before the United States Courts as defendant in two trials for cruelty to his crew, was yesterday convicted in the criminal branch, Judge Benedict presiding, of cruel and unusual punishment in floggings and other indignities inflicted by the Captain's own hand, or by his direction. It is alleged that three sailors died. Captain Gundie was first arrested five years ago, when master of the ship Old Colony, for ill-treating two Spanish refugees whom it was alleged he attempted to coerce into signing the ship's papers. On the trial it was proven that the men were beaten, hoisted to the maintop with heavy irons around their necks, gagged with iron bolts, and confined in a dark hole for fifteen days on an allowance of a biscuit a day. The men were so weak when taken from the ship that they had to be brought into court on stretchers. After a trial lasting several days, Captain Gundie was acquitted on technical grounds, the verdict being not guilty under the statute and the ruling of the court, but guilty of cruel treatment.

Jersey Justice.

SALEM, N. J., November 3.—The counsel for the convicted prisoners in the Walker homicide case this morning moved for a new trial, which was refused.

Abortionist Arrested—Poisoning Case.

NEW YORK, November 3.—Miss Mary Heinemann died this morning in Mount Sinai Hospital, from the effects, as alleged, of the malpractice of Johanna White, of 209 Allen street. Mrs. White, who is well known to the police, has been arrested and committed to the Toombs. The dead girl was about nineteen years of age, and the daughter of respectable parents in New Haven.

Mrs. Richard Smith and two sons, of 119 Congress street, Brooklyn, have been arrested, charged with an attempt to poison the husband and father.

Rush R. Sloan, the Forger, Returns for Trial.

SANDUSKY, O., November 3.—Rush R. Sloan, who jumped his bail and fled to Europe in February, 1874, has returned to this country, and is expected to put in an appearance and stand trial. There are seven indictments for forgery against him. His forfeited bail, $32,500, was paid to the County Commissioners a year ago. His attorneys say that he will attempt to make the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad Company trouble, and they are confident that he cannot be convicted on the criminal charges. The public regard his flight and forfeit of bail as a full confession of guilt.

Sentence of the Prize Fighters.

SALEM, N. J., November 3.—Weeden, Goodwin and Collyer, found guilty of manslaughter by aiding in the killing of the prize fighter Walker, were sentenced to six years' imprisonment each in the Trenton Penitentiary. The remaining two prisoners, Clark and Neary, were sentenced to an imprisonment of two years.

Double Murder in South Carolina.

AUGUSTA, GA., November 3.—A party of negroes broke into a residence near Chester, S. C., last night, and murdered Mr. Hansman and his nephew, named Pastman. After robbing the premises, the murderers fired the dwelling.

Two Murderers Hung in Texas.

ST. LOUIS, November 3.—A special to the Globe-Democrat from Kaufman, Texas, says: Eugene Catchings and William Payne, who murdered John Love, near Terrell, Texas, in may, 1875, were hanged there to-day.

Loss of a Schooner—Only One Man Saved.

General Martinez Campos, with 1,000 troops, arrived at Havana yesterday.

Will Heilman, a promising young man living near Little Rock, Ark., yesterday fell sixty feet from a pecan tree and was instantly killed.

Francis Thompson, the notorious negro, who for years figured as a woman, and imposed on the Congressional Committee in connection with the riots in 1866, died in the hospital at Memphis, yesterday, after a long illness.

Receiver of a Railroad Company Vindicated.

CHICAGO, ILL., November 3.—The hearing upon the application for the removal of General George B. Wright, receiver of the Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western Railway Company, which has been pending before Judge Drummond, of the United States Circuit Court, for the past four days, terminated to-day by the withdrawal of all charges whatever against the receiver. During the hearing General Wright's administration was justified in every particular, and the fact was shown that the property had been largely benefited since he came into possession of it—that he managed fairly and impartially to every interest involved.

Allen Kirkpatrick & Co., the well known wholesale grocers, flour and seed dealers, No. 271 Liberty street, have a large and carefully selected stock, to which they invite the attention of the trade. Their stock of fine New Orleans molasses is very large and they are selling it at the lowest prices. They are prepared to fill all orders promptly and guarantee quality and prices. City and country merchants having occasion to sort up their stock will do well to call on this firm, take a look at the stock and ascertain prices before making purchases elsewhere.

THE MARQUIS OF HARTINGTON ON THE ENGLISH POLICY.

LONDON, November 4.—The Marquis of Hartington, addressing a public meeting at Keighley, yesterday, said: However much he might question the policy of some of the Government's measures relative to the Eastern question, he was not prepared to say that the objects the Government had aimed at had not been such as generally commend themselves to the good opinion of the English people.

POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT ON THE EASTERN QUESTION.

PARIS, November 3.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day, the Duke Decazes, Minister of Foreign Affairs, made a statement in regard to the policy of the French Government in the East. He dwelt principally on the country's need of peace, and concluded as follows: "If, contrary to expectations of the Government, complications should arise, we shall never ask you to compromise the honor and safety of France in a struggle which does not involve her essential interests. Thus, having used our best endeavors to maintain the peace of Europe, we shall at least be sure of being able to maintain it for ourselves."

DEBATE ON PROSECUTIONS OF COMMUNISTS.

LONDON, November 4.—The Standard's Paris dispatch says: "M. Gatineau's bill for the cessation of prosecutions against Communists was introduced in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday by M. Lisbonne. After debate, during which M. Dufaure opposed and M. Gambetta supported the measure, the House, by an overwhelming majority, decided to proceed to debate on the clauses of the bill. The Standard's correspondent remarks that this defeat of M. Dufaure ought to show the Government the necessity of doing something in the matter.

The Times yesterday published a letter from Paris on the subject, of which the following is the substance: M. Gatineau's proposition is that no new prosecutions for participation in the commune be begun, and all the old prosecutions be quashed, except those directed against the instigators or principals in assassinations, incendiarism or robbery, and that all trials of parties in contumaciam be before the Court of Assize instead of military trials, as heretofore. This provision would prolong the trials ten years, as between 3,000 and 4,000 cases remain to be heard, while the Court of Assize could only try 300 or 400 yearly. On June 28th President MacMahon, yielding to the Cabinet's desire to quiet the agitation on this subject, published a letter in the Journal Official, ordering that no more prosecutions be instituted except in contumaciam or upon the initiative of the Cabinet. This was meant to be a compensation to the extreme Left for the rejection of a general amnesty. Gatineau's proposition would permit all self exiled communist leaders to return to France in safety. The Cabinet has determined not to accept any larger measure of amnesty than that conceded in the President's letter, leaving individual cases subject to executive clemency. If the Cabinet now accepts the passage of Gatineau's motion by the lower house, even though certain of its defeat in the Senate, it joins in an aggressive and distrustful vote against President MacMahon. If the measure is adopted by a combination of the Left and Right, the Cabinet's majority is destroyed and either way the Cabinet must resign.

The Paris dispatch to the Daily News says: Yesterday's proceedings in the Chamber of Deputies are equivalent to the adoption of the Gatineau bill in principle. The debate was adjourned until to-morrow. The Chamber will probably pass the bill in an amendment shape, against the wishes of the Ministry, and the Senate will reject it. This will probably be the commencement of a serious conflict.

LARGE REPUBLICAN MEETING AND PARADE IN KITTANNING.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

KITTANNING, PA., November 3, 1876.

The Republican mass meeting held in Kittanning to-day was one of the largest that has ever been held in the county. The crowd has been immense. It was addressed by James B. Neale, Esq., followed by J. M. Grier, candidate for Senate, in telling speeches. To-night the illumination of the town is magnificent. The torchlight procession has over one thousand men in line. Hon. Lorenzo Danford, of Ohio, and General Harry White are addressing the immense crowd. The promises are good for five hundred majority for the ticket. The enthusiasm is unbounded.

PARKERS, PA., November 3, 1876.

THE REPUBLICAN TIDAL WAVE ADVANCING—VIEWS OF SENATOR CAMERON ON THE SITUATION—HE SAYS THE REPUBLICANS WILL ELECT HAYES AND WHEELER AND GAIN EIGHT CONGRESSMEN IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

HARRISBURG, PA., November 2, 1876.

The success of the Republican party on Tuesday next, daily becomes more assured. From all directions the tidal wave of popular district of Democratic professions is setting in. The fraudulent registration in New York city, the tax receipt conspiracy in Philadelphia, and the address of the merchants and bankers have not been unimportant agencies in opening the eyes of the people to the dangers of their situation.

Senator Cameron, who but recently returned from a visit to Washington, now feels doubly sure of a Republican triumph. He said yesterday that if he ever did entertain any doubts as to the result in Pennsylvania, they had all vanished now, and that the State would be all right. Within the past few days he has received a number of letters from all parts of the State. They all agreed in their reports of the grand uprising of the people. When informed of the prospects in the Western part of the State, he expressed much gratification, as he said he wished to see such great Republican counties as Allegheny return to their proper places in the ranks of the party of free schools, free institutions and a protected industry. The Senator now considers that the prospects of the success of the national ticket amount to a certainty. The President said to him that he was determined to have a fair election in some of the Southern States, if he could not in all, and for that purpose would to the last degree protect Republicans in the exercise of their privileges of citizenship. He counts upon South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana. He considers Mississippi a Republican State, but beyond control within the time necessary to enable Republican voters to make themselves felt. That State will doubtless be attended to hereafter. The news from North Carolina is also encouraging. In the Northern States the latest information received by the Chairman of the National Committee convinces Senator Cameron that the Republicans have every chance of carrying every Northern State except, perhaps, Connecticut. In New York city the supervisors of elections have at their disposal all the requisites to a vigorous and successful detection of fraud upon the ballot. Senator Cameron, in a word, thinks that the Republican party will elect Hayes and Wheeler, and will gain eight or nine members of Congress.

GRAND REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION AT UNIONTOWN, PA.

The Republicans of Uniontown have been actively engaged for some days in arranging for a monster torchlight parade, which came off Thursday evening, November 2d, and was a decided success. Three thousand men were in line, a prominent feature being a delegation of 600 horsemen from German township.

Colonel Samuel S. Brown, of Pittsburgh, was chosen Chief Marshal. The Colonel, notwithstanding his experience and ability in such matters, almost found the town too small to handle the immense number of delegations that kept continually reporting to him for positions in the line; but with his usual good management, the line was formed and moved with but few moments' delay.

Marching clubs from McKeesport, Connellsville and Broad Ford and other adjacent towns turned out in good numbers, to help their neighbors to make this the finest display ever witnessed in Fayette county. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, as it was raining during the entire evening, there was no lack of enthusiasm; all parties seemed willing to accept a little inconvenience for the good of the cause. Private dwellings and some public buildings were handsomely illuminated. Speeches were made by prominent speakers. Colonel Brown was the recipient of several serenades by the McKeesport and Connellsville bands, whom he entertained at the McClelland House afterwards.

Colorado.

INAUGURATION OF THE NEW REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR.

DENVER, COL., November 3.—Hon. John L. Routt was to-day inaugurated Governor of Colorado. His message was mainly devoted to topics of local and State interest. The financial showing was particularly favorable, there being a handsome excess of resources over all liabilities, and the constitutional provisions prohibiting a debt or excessive taxation. Educational matters are equally encouraging. The annual metal product is eight millions, and it is predicted that with the development of the San Juan district, in southwestern Colorado, next year the product will reach ten millions.

A DEMOCRATIC ROORBACK—FALSE REGISTRATION IN NEW ORLEANS—THE STATE SURE FOR HAYES IN AN HONEST ELECTION.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

NEW YORK, November 3, 1876.

The following dispatch has just been received at the National Republican Committee headquarters:

NEW ORLEANS, November 2, 1876.

To Hon. Zach. Chandler:

I have just read in the Northern papers a dispatch from the Democratic Committee here to the Democratic National Committee, charging that ten thousand Democrats are being arrested on groundless charges of false registration. This dispatch, together with the reply of the National Democratic Committee, of date October 30th, has not been published in the papers of this city, and are both evidently published exclusively North for effect there. The charges thus made are untrue. After the riot of September, 1874, the White League, taking advantage of the unsettled condition of affairs, forced thousands of fictitious names upon the registration books, making their majority that year about 15,000, against 8,000 in 1872, while the Republican vote was about the same as in 1872, although it is an indisputable fact that the colored vote has increased, while the white vote has not. Affidavits have been made against many of these fictitious names, writs have been issued, and return not found. They are mostly straw men, and the opposition know it. No arrests have been or will be made, except under proceedings in strict conformity with law. No names will be stricken from the registration book except upon conclusive evidence of fraudulent registration. We expect to carry the State, and we propose to carry it fairly.

THE CONFEDERATE CAVALIER DENIES A LIE EMANATING FROM THE TILDEN BUREAU—TILDEN AND HIS FELLOW REBELS IN THE NORTH RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LATE WAR—HIS MESSAGES OF CHEER AND SYMPATHY TO MOSBY.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

PHILADELPHIA, November 3, 1876.

The Democrats have been making in the South particularly, constant and virulent attacks on Colonel John S. Mosby. They delight, above all things, to represent him as a hired agent of the administration, and endeavor to excite hostility against him as a deserter from the Confederacy. He has written, in reply to one of these charges, the following letter, which needs no further explantion:

WARRENTON, November 2, 1876.

Colonel James B. O'Neil:

DEAR SIR—I have just received your letter of the 30th ult., informing me that a Democratic orator in Philadelphia had stated that General Grant had appointed me to some office. I am glad that you denounce the statement as a lie. It originated with the Tilden Bureau, and was pronounced by me to be false in a letter published several weeks ago. They still continue to circulate this with other lies about me. I have never received, in any shape, the slightest favor or benefit of any kind from General Grant's administration, although I was his cordial supporter. The few Confederates he has appointed to office in the South were as loyal to the Government during the war as Tilden, and are much more so now. I am unable to account for the ferocity with which I have been pursued by the Tilden organs, unless it be that they think their candidate has a claim upon me for my support on account of the messages of sympathy and cheer I received from him during that unhappy period when I was fighting to overthrow the Government of the Union. But for the advice of such men in the North as Tilden, the South never would have plunged into a disastrous war, and launched her fortunes on that perfidious bark, "built in the eclipse and rigged with curses dark."

In haste very truly,
JOHN S. MOSBY.

Rice is reported as four per cent. less than in 1875, but the quality is better.

Barley, six per cent. less than last year.

Sorghum, full production.

Tobacco—The report shows about an average production.

REBEL WAR CLAIMS.

Sham Tilden's Sophistry Exposed.

Bulletin From the Republican National Committee.

How the Game Is to be Played.

Let Every Voter Read and Ponder.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE,
FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL,
NEW YORK, November 3, 1876.

The Republican National Committee calls the attention of the people of the United States to the extraordinary action of the Democratic candidate for the Presidency and his party managers, regarding the rebel war claims, for the payment of which a grand raid upon the Treasury is contemplated in the event of Democratic success in the impending election. Mr. Tilden, at this late hour, in a formal paper over his own signature, promises and agrees to maintain, execute and enforce the Fourteenth amendment of the Federal Constitution, and to veto all bills for paying any claims for any loss or damage incurred by disloyal persons arising from the late war. An urgent appeal has also been made by Mr. Tilden to the Democratic leaders and State Committees of every Southern State to join by telegraph in his promise, according to a prescribed form sent out by him, to assert that the South does not expect the payment of such claims for loss or damage. This remarkable action on the part of Mr. Tilden and some of his Southern allies this committee does not hesitate to characterize as a virtual admission of the unsoundness of the Democratic party with reference to the rebel war claims, which unsoundness is to be utterly destructive of Mr. Tilden's chances of election, unless new promises and desperate expedients can avert the otherwise inevitable result. The promise to veto the claims comes only after the hope of their payment, and the policy of intimidation and murder have, he believes, made the Southern States sure for the Democratic electoral ticket. The promise to veto all claims of disloyal persons is to be avoided by accepting the doctrine that since the close of the war and complete amnesty, there are no disloyal persons. This is distinctly announced by Mr. G. C. Cabell, of Virginia, in his report in the House of Representatives of June 30, 1876, where he declares that proof by a claimant that he has received pardon or amnesty is equivalent to affirmative proof that the party never gave aid or comfort to the rebellion. This favorite Democratic Southern idea, that there are no disloyal persons, is sustained by Mr. John Ritchie, of Maryland, in a speech of April 13, 1872; by the resolution of Mr. W. W. Wilshire, of Arkansas, in his bill No. 553, for the payment of claims for stores and supplies of all citizens of the United States; by the bills of Messrs. William M. Long, of Louisiana, and F. H. Hurd, of Ohio, Nos. 1674 and 1883, opening the Court of Claims to claims for stores and supplies and use of property by all persons without regard to loyalty; by bill No. 1,728, of Mr. J. F. Philips, of Missouri; by bill No. 3,212, of Mr. Philip Cook, of Georgia, and by over one thousand similar bills, including No. 2,364, of Mr. H. Y. Riddle, of Tennessee, which provided for compensation to all citizens of the United States for the use and occupation of their property during the late civil war by the United States army or any part thereof.

Another contemplated evasion of the apparent promise not to pay rebel war claims is apparent from the language of Mr. Tilden and his Southern committees. His promise is truly to veto bills for paying for loss or damage. The Southern Democrats, according Mr. Tilden's prescribed form, only say they have no hope of payment for loss or damage to property. These promises carefully reserve all claims for supplies furnished or taken, or for property captured, or for the use and occupation of property, which classes of claims cover more than four-fifths of the many millions of claims now pending in the House of Representatives. The country can further judge of the possibility of stemming the current of rebel claims by Mr. Tilden's promise to enter into a conflict with his own party and veto its bill, by considering that many of the Northern States have already commenced auditing such claims, and issuing to their people therefor in large sums "Rebel Claim Greenbacks," payable by the States whenever the same shall be allowed to the States by the United States. The State of Missouri has received for audit 11,961 claims of $4,844,362 29, as appears by Governor Silas Woodson's message of January 6, 1875, and has presented to the United States Treasury for allowance such claims amounting to $2,380,131 67, nearly one-half of which sum is for supplies furnished by rebels for the use of the Union armies. This total sum the State has audited "allowed," and has issued certificates therefor in form like the following:

No. 52. [Seal of the State of Missouri] $55 80. It is hereby certified that the State of Missouri is indebted to Woodford M. Paris in the sum of $55 80 on account of supplies furnished. This certificate is not payable by the State until after the claim of said Woodford M. Paris has been presented to the United States Government and the amount allowed and paid to the State, and then only for the actual amount received from the United States Government.

City of Jefferson, Mo., September 8, 1874.

SILAS WOODSON,
Governor of Missouri.

J. D. CRAFTON,
Acting Quartermaster General.

Indorsement on back, signed Woodford M. Paris, "issued in accordance with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, approved March 19, 1874."

These certificates are printed in the style of greenbacks, and have been put in circulation in Missouri, and many thousand dollars of them have been negotiated and are now held in New York city; and the undoubted object of their issue has been to create an irresistable public sentiment in favor of the payment of such claims by the United States. The Missouri Democratic leaders have not yet responded to Mr. Tilden's appeal to them to promise, if he is elected, not to press claims for losses and damages. If they should so respond, and should even include these allowed claims for supplies, of what value are their or his promises in view of his letter of acceptance, wherein he declares that by the solemnity of legal and constitutional prohibition, alone, and not by the promises of men, can the people be guarded against Presidential corruptions in office, experience having repeatedly exposed the futility of self-imposed restrictions by candidates or incumbents? Through this solemnity only can he be effectually delivered from his greatest temptation to misuse the power and patronage with which the Executive is necessarily charged. Mr. Tilden's position, then, is that a constitutional amendment is necessary to protect the country from the corruptions incident to a President desirous of a second term; but that a promise before election to veto bills which his party is committed to pass is a sufficient barrier against twenty-five hundred millions of dollars of rebel claims, and in this promise Mr. Hendricks does not join; while of the Southern Democratic Committees called to the rescue by Mr. Tilden, only five have promised not to press such claims if he is elected.

An old resident of Medway, Mass., was sent to the poor house, the other week, on the same day that his unfilial son laid the foundation of a fine double house in the most aristocratic part of the village for himself.

Mr. Val Princep, an English artist, is to go to Delhi, India, to paint a picture of the great celebration there when the Empress is proclaimed. The sum of $25,000, with $5,000 for expenses, will afford considerable of a stimulus.

Dr. Atchin, an eminent London physician, has frankly avowed, in an address to students, that "of all scientific pursuits which practically concern the community, there is none perhaps which rests upon so uncertain and insecure a basis as medicine."

The richest man in Valparaiso is a native of our country who went to Chili on a whaling vessel, and somehow was left there, and was in most destitute circumstances, but is now believed to be worth $5,000,000. Moral: "Young man, go South instead of West."

Stanton, the English bicycle-rider, has just won a match against time for $500, riding 100 miles and 340 yards in six hours and forty-five minutes, the weather being unfavorable. Two years ago Stanton failed to make 100 miles in eight and a half hours, which shows that he is progressing in his art.

California is, for women, the modern Utopia, a judge of San Francisco having decided that, under the laws of that State, a wife has full and exclusive control over her own property, and is competent to execute mortgages or transfers of real or personal property held in her own right. In the words of the decision, the laws of the State are "intended to make the wife entirely free from the husband's care and guardianship, and more free and independent in all things than the husband himself."

The following incident occurred near Brookfield, Mass., a few days ago. An old lady was going to Stamford to visit a daughter, and took her seat in the cars for the first time in her life. During the ride the car in which she was seated was thrown down an embankment and demolished. Crawling out from beneath the debris, she spied a man who was held down in a sitting posture by his legs being fastened. "Is this Stamford?" she anxiously inquired. The man was from Boston. He was in considerable pain, but he did not lose sight of the fact that he was from Boston, so he said: "No, this is a catastrophe." "Oh," ejaculated the old lady, "then I hadn't oughter got off here."

It is estimated that from 50,000 to 75,000 feet of lumber goes to the Clarion oil region every day. Frequently over fifty wagons pass through our town in a day in that direction, and more than double that number through Shippenville. A large lot of boards rafted down to the Clarion bridge are being hauled to the oil region. Every saw mill within fifteen miles is busy night and day, cutting rig stuff. New engines and boilers are coming up to the front every day. The third sand rock between Edinburg and Shippenville will soon be perforated like the lid of a pepper box.—Clarion Democrat.

THE FINAL RALLIES.

Immense Meetings in the Seventh and Fifteenth Wards, Pittsburgh, and Millvale Borough—Miles S. Humphreys Discusses the most Important Issue of this Campaign to Pittsburgh Workingmen.

The closing rallies of the campaign are being held, and the large throngs that attend the Republican gatherings attest the extreme importance which the true citizen attaches to the pending election.

SEVENTH WARD.

A rousing rally was held last evening at the corner of Wylie avenue and Elm street. The meeting was organized by the election of the following officers:

President—Alderman Joseph A. Butler.

Vice Presidents—Charles Jeremy, Luke Chapman, Wm. Wright, Wm. Flood, J. M. Atkinson, Wm. Little, John B. Hill, Thomas A. Rowley, John Wilson, H. Bovard, John Marshall, Joseph H. Roush, C. P. Duff, Fred. Parke, H. De Boiver.

Secretaries—R. M. Snodgrass, Daniel F. Sherry, John McFarland, Ira W. Butler, T. Byrne, Wm. McCallin, Gunn, D. Howe, Thos. Perry, C. Colwell.

Alderman Butler, on taking the chair, made a brief but forcible speech, and then introduced J. S. Ferguson, Esq., who, with Captain Samuel Harper and Professor H. I. Gourley, held the large audience spellbound for over two hours.

The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Hayes, Wheeler, Errett and the whole ticket.

MILVALE.

Another large rally was held at Milvale last evening, presided over by Mr. Jno. I. Williams. Able and eloquent speeches were made by Henry Cordier, Esq., in German, John H. Kerr, Esq., Jno. Megraw, Esq., and Miles S. Humphreys.

LAWRENCEVILLE—TILDEN AND HEWITT OPPOSED TO NORTHERN MUDSILLS AND GREASY MECHANICS.

But the largest meeting of all was held at the corner of Butler and Thirty-sixth streets last evening, at which Miles S. Humphreys and Colonel Joseph S. Haymaker delivered addresses fairly electrical in their effects. The speech of Mr. Humphreys in itself was a rare treat. As a workingman and a Trades Unionist, he declared his opposition to Samuel J. Tilden for two reasons. First, the speaker had worked for six years at the Brady's Bend Iron Works during Mr. Dudley's superintendency, and he had in that position full opportunity of thoroughly understanding the audacious trickery of Tilden.

Again the Chairman of the National Democratic Committee Abram S. Hewitt, Tilden's campaign manager, and a Congressman from New York, was, in 1867, an American Commissioner at the Paris Exposition. While there, an English Parliamentary Commission had under consideration the subject of Trade Unions. At one of the meetings of the Commission, Mr. Hewitt volunteered his opinion of the Trades' Unions of the United States, and made a speech in which he referred to the long strike of the boilers of Pittsburgh, alleging that the striking puddlers had committed such outrageous acts that it was unsafe for people to be abroad in the streets of Pittsburgh day or night.

In fact this Hewitt stated that the streets were running with blood. He (Mr. Humphreys) had every opportunity of knowing the real truth of the matter, and every one of his hearers could testify that Hewitt's assertion was a foul and infamous slander. Honor where honor is due. Hon. W. C. McCarthy, our present worthy Mayor, without solicitation, had written a letter to this same parliamentary commission denying Hewitt's malignant lies. This same Hewitt, continued the speaker, has emissaries among the members of the Boilers' Union now working for Tilden and Hopkins, who hold exactly the same opinions regarding the workingmen of this country that he (Hewitt) expressed in Europe in 1867. Will the iron workers of the South Side, the North Side, or of any part of Pittsburgh make fools of themselves by voting for Hewitt's candidates, Tilden and Hopkins? Can they forget the resolutions they adopted in 1867, in the building now occupied as Republican headquarters, denouncing Abram S. Hewitt for his outrageous libel upon them? And even supposing for a moment that Tilden, the Vice President of the Free Trade League, should be elected, does any sane person imagine that he would not be subservient to the same old anti-labor principles which he developed at Brady's Bend, and which Hewitt falsely asserted before the British Commission. Both are playing into the hands of Queen Victoria and her minions, the enemies of free labor and free America.

Mr. Humphreys developed these points at length, and was justly cheered, even by the large number of Democrats who formed his audience.

There cannot be a doubt but that his words convinced many Democrats of the utter folly of voting for the free trade Tilden, Hendricks and Hopkins.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1876.

A VOTE for TILDEN is a vote to revive the Confederacy.

THE air is roseate with the prophecy of a nobler dawn. We are going to win.

ALL that our friends have to do now is to press on to victory. But press on!

THE leaders of the Democratic party are suffering from a severe attack of the shakes.

FROM Maine to California the uncertain voter is getting down from its fence on the Republican side.

REMEMBER that the only way to defeat the Democratic party is to defeat its candidates, whoever they may be.

A VOTE for HAYES is a vote for peace in the South.

THE Republican spirit now shown throughout the country is perfectly magnificent, and it means victory.

A VOTE for TILDEN is a vote for "a public plunderer."

THE mills of the gods are beginning to grind, and on Tuesday night the Republicans will see and rejoice at the grist.

A VOTE for TILDEN is a vote to cast away the fruits of the war.

TO DAY, Monday and Tuesday, properly employed by the Republicans, in working and watching, will be worth all they have done before.

THE editor of the Philadelphia Times concedes the election of the Republican candidates for Congress in the Twenty-second and Twenty-third districts in this State.

A VOTE for HAYES is a vote against a united South.

THE exports of domestic produce from Philadelphia in September exceeded those of any other American port except New York. Their value was $5,823,395, while those of Boston were $4,024,618, of Baltimore $3,828,853, of San Francisco $3,518,992, and of New Orleans $1,083,138.

A VOTE for HAYES is a vote for real reform.

THE object of the United States election laws is to secure a fair vote and prevent frauds. Everybody ought to favor their enforcement. But they are a terror to evildoers, and hence they are denounced by the leaders of the Democratic party and their organs, and were persistently opposed in Congress by JAMES H. HOPKINS.

A VOTE for HAYES is a vote for returning prosperity.

THE pulse of business is the best of tests, and its beat cannot be mistaken. The strong position taken by the mercantile classes of the country in favor of the Republican candidates is exerting a remarkable influence, and causing a very thoughtful examination of financial prospects. A great many old Democrats are much disturbed, and large numbers of them will either vote for HAYES, or not vote at all.

A VOTE for TILDEN is a vote to block the wheels of reform.

CONSCIENCELESS men may lie, as witness TILDEN. Papers that ignore all integrity may print lies without end, as witness the Democratic press. A champion of the latter class, yet exposing itself by the monstrous extravagance of its lying, is the New York Sun. A weaker imitator, whose idiotic repetitions only serve to excite derision, is the Democratic organ of this city.

A VOTE for HAYES is a vote to strengthen the public credit.

SINCE JACKSON's time the losses during the several administrations on each $1,000, exclusive of postoffice, have been as follows:

1834-37—Jackson, Democrat	$10 55
1838-41—Van Buren, Democratic	21 15
1845-49—Polk, Democratic	8 34
1849-53—Taylor and Fillmore	7 64
1853-57—Pierce, Democratic	5 86
1857-61—Buchanan, Democratic	6 98
1861-65—Lincoln, Republican	1 41
1865-69—Johnson, Republican	48
1869-73—Grant, Republican	40
1873-75—Grant, Republican	26

During the twenty-six years previous to the incoming of the Republican Administration in 1861, and the sixteen years of Republican rule, the ratio of loss on each $1,000 was as follows:

Previous to Republican rule	$9 02
Under Republican rule	78

TILDEN AND REFORM—Destruction of the public credit, financial disaster and wholesale ruin.

A VOTE for TILDEN is a vote to approve of his rebel conduct during the late war. He is the rebel's candidate. No rebel in the South can find in SAMUEL J. TILDEN's war record a single word or deed objectionable. If the confederacy had achieved its independence, and TILDEN had removed there and become its candidate for President, no word or act of his could be urged against him unfavorable to his candidacy. He has a pure and original rebel record, of which even JEFF. DAVIS is envious. Any Republican who can vote for this perjurer and tax defrauder, as well as rebel chief, has no right to complain if the nation is saddled with the entire rebel war debt. A vote for TILDEN is a vote approving of treason to our Government and applauding rebellion.

TILDEN AND REFORM—The triumph of rebellion and treason.

A LETTER from one of our citizens temporarily residing in Florida, to a friend in this city, contains the following striking and confirmatory statements, which we have been permitted to copy:

> The all absorbing topic here now is politics. The yellow fever is entirely forgotten, and everything centers in that. The interest increases every day. There was never so much excitement between the parties, so people say, as now here. Both are determined to carry the State. The Republicans contend, if they lose the election, the same state of things will prevail as before the war. It is very apparent there is little abatement in the bitterness. In several of the country districts the meetings have been attended by numbers of armed men, ready for fighting. The Northern element is so strong in this city that we are safe, but in the interior there is quite sure to be bloodshed. It will be a happy time when the election is over.

A VOTE for TILDEN is a vote to unsettle public confidence.

DO NOT lose sight of the fact that the Democratic Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, who was appointed by the free trade Speaker whom the votes of HOPKINS and COCHRAN helped to elect, has introduced a tariff bill which he waits only the result of the Presidential election to urge into law. This tariff strikes a fatal blow at the largest and most important industries of Pittsburgh. A Democratic representative from Pennsylvania may not venture to give his support to Mr. MORRISON's bill. But unless he will pledge himself not to vote for a Democratic Speaker, he will give Mr. MORRISON a power to accomplish his end, which, if he could cast twenty votes against his bill, he could not neutralize. The same Democracy which through White League and rifle clubs strikes at the rights of the laboring class at the South, by its financial and free trade policy strikes at the interests of labor in the North.

WITH the triumphant election of HAYES and WHEELER trade and commerce will assume its accustomed ways.

BEHIND the known perils which would follow the ascendancy of the Democratic party to power, looms up the danger that that party would, during its four years' lease of the National Government, so reconstruct the Supreme Court of the United States as to make that judicial tribunal of last resort the mouth-piece of the Democratic party to decide all questions in the interest of the late rebels of the South. The question of securing the enfranchised colored race in the rights of citizenship, the question of permanent prohibition of payment of any debt incurred on behalf of the rebellion, and the question of prohibiting forever any compensation for emancipated slaves, all hang upon the sound and honest construction of the Supreme Court of the valid adoption of these constitutional amendments. A very large and influential portion of the Democratic party hold that these amendments are invalid because not ratified by what they hold to have been the requisite constitutional majority of the States.

TILDEN AND REFORM—Death to all industry, ruin to the farmer, starvation to the mechanic.

AS A sample of the feeling of Southern Democrats toward their Northern dupes, the following will suffice: A citizen of Beaver county, Pennsylvania, being a good Democrat—which means that he always did what he could for the slave-driving Democracy of the South—decided to go to Charleston, West Virginia, to live. He was a first-class bricklayer, and concluded he could get all the work he wanted, as he was going among brother Democrats. On reaching his destination he soon made it known that he was a Democrat. This, as a general rule, would have been sufficient, but the Democrats of West Virginia have their own way of doing things. They wanted to know where he was from, and he told them from Pennsylvania. This was enough, and from the time it became known that the mechanic was from Pennsylvania he could get no work. There was a systematic proscription; and it mattered not to which party the proscribed person belonged, it was all the same if he hailed from the North—he could not be tolerated. This gave the Pennsylvania Democrat a new idea of the "Southern brother," and it was not very poetical, either. He could get no work there, because he was from the North, and he had to leave. Yet the Democrats of the North, with a stupidity without parallel, do all they can to put into power these very Southern Democrats who look with supreme contempt upon them, and have even less respect for them than they have for Republicans. It is a question past finding out why there is any sympathy at all between Northern and Southern Democrats. There is no special community of interest. It, however, exhibits a very unselfish feeling on the part of the Northern Democrat, who willingly does everything and never gets anything for the work he performs. TILDEN is the candidate of the South, not of the North. If elected he will give the best offices to men of the South, and we should not be surprised to see the country represented abroad by men who not only tried to destroy it, but openly boast of their crime. TILDEN, if elected, must of necessity give the offices in his gift to the States electing him. The calamity of his election, we predict, will be averted by an almost united North; but should our prediction not prove true, Democrats of the North need expect precious little as a reward for their votes. The South will get most of and the best positions in the gift of the President. This was so before the war, when Democrats ruled the nation. The South always demanded the lion's share, and always got it. If a Northern Democrat can do anything to benefit his masters in the South they will receive it, but will never reciprocate. The experience of the Beaver county man is the experience of all men who go South. If they are Democrats their lives may be spared for the sake of their votes, but if they are Republicans no such toleration is willingly permitted. Down with such a party as the one seeking to rule and ruin this great nation—the rebel party.

A VOTE for TILDEN is a vote for continued hard times.

A WASHINGTON correspondent of the Chicago Tribune furnishes that paper with some interesting and significant examples of the sort of reading matter given by TILDEN organs in sections where no necessity for concealment is recognized. He gives extracts from the Weekly Bill Poster, Pontiac, Michigan; the Jackson Sentinel, Maquoketa, Iowa; the Mercer County Standard, Celina, Ohio; and several other TILDEN papers, all published in October last, and each containing letters commending him for his loyalty and devotion to the Union cause, for his generous contributions in aid of military organizations to suppress the rebellion, and referring to a pamphlet to be issued by his committee giving his patriotic speeches in extenso to volunteer troops. But in the Tama county (Iowa) Independent, of October 1st, its Washington correspondent thus brazenly proclaims Democratic willingness to accept the results of violence and fraud:

> The Democrats, however, are generally conceded to have one great advantage on the general result in November. They will go to the polls sure of a solid South, 138 votes in the Electoral College, and the North to give them the majority necessary to elect their candidates—185 votes. All the troops that can be sent to the South will be insufficient to scare the white people of that section. They are resolved at all hazard to rid themselves of negro and carpetbag rule. The news from Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, and especially from South Carolina, is more than encouraging. In all these States the negroes have got to see that their immediate and permanent welfare can only be secured by putting the management of public affairs in the skilled and beneficent hands of their former masters, and abandoning the carpet-baggers altogether. Every Southern State will be carried by the Democrats—must be carried.

We also particularly invite the attention of every honest, loyal, patriotic voter to the following extract from the Washington correspondence of the Elkton (Md.) Democrat in its issue of October 7:

> Mr. Tilden's opposition to the war has been made the most of by the Republicans. But it avails nothing. The war is over. And it is remembered that there was a clean cut and honest difference of opinion all over Christendom as to the right or wrong of the late rebellion. Mr. Tilden, with many other distinguished men of our own and other countries, leaned toward the South during the contest; but he was none the less an American. And now that section naturally gives him its united support. It goes solid for him. There has been a disposition among the tried friends of Mr. Tilden to deny that he was opposed to the war. But Mr. Tilden himself has never sanctified [sanctioned] such a denial. He stands now where he stood from 1861 to 1865, opposed to a war for coercing the dissatisfied States of the Union to remain in it. Mr. Tilden is a good, old fashioned States' Right Democrat of the John C. Calhoun stripe; and the Presidency cannot benefit him to forswear his faith. And that is why the people like him. That is why they will vote for him. He refuses all importunities to make him say that the invasion of the South was justifiable; because he believes it was not justifiable.

A VOTE for HAYES is a vote for equal and exact justice to all men.

WHO ever heard a Democratic speech that did not have for its text "taxes?" We have read many of the speeches of Democratic orators this campaign, and they have hardly anything to say after they get through with the "tax" question. If a Republican misuses his powers in the collection of taxes, then, according to the logic of Democratic speakers, the whole party should be driven from power. They never have a word of condemnation for the men who caused the high taxes of the country. Had it not been for the war of the rebellion the people of the nation would not be subjected to high taxes. And yet these "reformers" always censure the party collecting the taxes, while they have nothing but praise for the party causing them. Many men complain who do not pay two dollars of taxes for each year of their lives, and would not think of the subject at all, were it not for the demagoguical speeches of their party leaders. The whole national debt is purely a Democratic one, and the people would not be oppressed in the least by taxation except for Democratic evil-doing. The national debt was largely augmented by a depreciation of our national credit, produced entirely by Democratic-copperhead sympathy for the rebel cause. People should not complain of taxation who are themselves the cause of the taxes. A criminal in court, complaining of the costs of his conviction, is an exactly parallel case. No government ever more carefully collected and judiciously appropriated taxes, than the Republican administration of the United States. All the hindrances to the collection of taxes are made by Democrats. Throughout the South, collectors are in constant peril of their lives, and Democrats of the North tacitly approve these Ku-Klux efforts to evade payment of the revenue. Would TILDEN be likely to enforce the laws against his friends? No; and nearly all the burden of taxation would fall on the people of the North. HAYES, will enforce all laws, North as well as South.

A VOTE for HAYES is a vote for the revival of our industries.

THAT sham reformer, Governor TILDEN, has provoked the bitter hostility of the Scottish adopted citizens, not only of the State of New York, but throughout the country generally, for his grossly partizan and unjust act, as Governor, in disbanding the 79th Highlanders, which made such a gallant record during the war. This was done under the pretense of "economy and reform;" but, to show the utter hollowness of this plea, it is only necessary to state that he retained another regiment (no larger than the 79th) at an expense to the city of New York of $37,000 per annum. The sole reason for this partiality is found in the fact that the colonel of this regiment, and the majority of the men, are Democrats. The expense of the Highlanders, per annum, was only $11,000. This not only exposes TILDEN as a sham reformer, but proves him to be intensely partizan even in his official acts, and hence not a proper person to be trusted with executive power. Not only did he destroy this patriotic organization, but he afterwards meanly claimed that he had been its friend and patron. The commander of the "Old Guard Seventy-ninth Highlanders," Colonel JOSEPH LAING, has issued a card in reference to this matter, addressed to his "Brither Scots in America," and here is a portion of what he says:

> Governor Tilden even ignored our petition and letter to him, treating us, in fact, with silent contempt, before the disbandment took place. Still he lately attempted to claim share in the honor of presenting our colors and aiding the Seventy ninth Regiment before our departure for the war. Need I say, that he was not at the presentation of our colors, nor did he even give a dollar to the regiment. All he even did for us was to degrade us by disbandment. Could a loyal regiment which had done such gallant services during the rebellion expect anything better from a disloyal rebel and Sham Reformer, one who wants to make himself appear loyal in the eyes of the people of the Northern States, while he is known in the Southern States as a rebel and secessionist. Countrymen, one and all, help us to defeat Samuel J. Tilden, the greatest political impostor of the nineteenth century.

A VOTE for TILDEN is a vote for the payment of Southern claims.

IT IS the height of impudence for Democrats to ask Republicans to throw aside party preferences and vote for Democratic candidates. They never pursue such a course themselves. Nearly everybody who has been a Democrat since the commencement of the war is a Democrat now. Democrats rarely leave their party for any cause whatever, and least of all for a good cause. The united South is Democratic. None of them ever forsake party for the sake of reform or anything else. On the contrary, they call every Democrat a "scalawag" who leaves his party, and ostracise him socially for it. To leave the Democratic party is considered treason to the Lost Cause, and for a former Confederate to do so is esteemed a gross insult to the whole South. Never was a class of people held under such tyrannical party pressure as the Southern people are to-day. The former Northern men who sympathized with the rebellion are likewise Democrats, united no less than the South. None of them leave their party for the sake of reform or anything else. They stick to the party whether right or wrong; and whenever it is proposed to reform it because corrupt they call upon everybody not to do so lest they aid the "Radicals" thereby. If there is any one feature that permanently characterizes the Democrats more than anything else, it is the tenacity with which they stick to their party because it is their party. Voting irrespective of party is good, in their opinion, for Republicans, but bad for Democrats. In the former case it is thought to show liberality; in the latter it is held to show a forsaking of principle. And now, when the Democrats in their effrontery ask us to vote irrespective of party, while they vote exclusively with respect to party, the result, if the Democrats should win, would be to put the most partisan class in the country into power. Voting irrespective of party will not put in an administration irrespective of party. The present Democratic candidates are thoroughly partisan, from the top of the ticket to the bottom. There is nothing republican, or even independent, in the TILDEN-HENDRICKS ticket or in the men who stand back of them. The Democrats have put up thoroughly partisan candidates, intended to represent themselves, and not the class whom they hoped to draw over, so that when they come out in their true character and ask Republicans to drop party considerations, they do so at a time when the result would be most disastrous to the Republican policy. "Voting irrespective of party" means simply voting for the Democratic party, and is a catch phrase habitually used by the weaker side to draw votes from the stronger. Every sincere Republican will stand firmly by his colors.

A VOTE for PETER COOPER is a vote for TILDEN.

ABOUT the meanest attempt made in this campaign is that of Mr. Hopkins in trying to fasten upon Mr. ERRETT the responsibility of securing the passage, while he was a member of the Senate, of the bill under which the Credit Mobilier swindle was carried on.

Mr. ERRETT was in the Senate in 1868 and 1869, while the bill to charter the Credit Mobilier corporation was passed in 1860. It is simply the baldest of lying, therefore, to attach any responsibility for that act to Mr. ERRETT.

This bill, as passed in 1860, contained extraordinary powers as to making contracts, building railroads, &c.; and when the Directors of the Union Pacific road were casting about for some method by which they could secure to themselves the profits of constructing the road, there was a little man in New York, a cunning railroad lawyer, who pointed out to them how easy it would be to form another company under the Pennsylvania Credit Mobilier act, and let the contracts to themselves for building the road. That man was SAMUEL J. TILDEN, the Democratic candidate for President. It was he who discovered the extraordinary powers of that act; and it was by his counsel that the Credit Mobilier swindle was organized.

It will not do for Mr. HOPKINS to rob his Presidential candidate of that great honor. It was characteristic of the New York trickster, and Mr. HOPKINS is simply wasting his breath in trumping up the falsehood that Mr. ERRETT had anything whatever to do with that affair. The Credit Mobilier rascality was conceived and consummated long before Mr. ERRETT was elected to the Senate; and it is a most disgraceful trick, on the part of Mr. HOPKINS, to attempt to connect Mr. ERRETT's name with a scheme that is fathered by so distinguished a Democratic demagogue as TILDEN.

NEVER before were the Republicans of Allegheny county more thoroughly awakened to the paramount importance of winning a grand triumph at the polls than on next Tuesday. They are victoriously contending with a desperate and dangerous party, whose record is blackened with slavery, stained with secession, and clothed with corruption as with a garment. And now, with marvelous effrontery and unparalleled hypocrisy, this self-same disloyal party is making its final effort to fasten its poisonous fangs upon the American Government. Its success would be alike fatal to the prosperity and perilous to the perpetuity of the Union. As the natural friend of the South, the Democratic party favors impoverishing the loyal North to liquidate the Southern claims, and as the natural enemy of our public free school system, negro enfranchisement and honest dealing with our national creditors, its success would be fraught with inconceivable calamity. It is well, not alone for the present generation, but for all posterity, that Republicans and Union Democrats everywhere are arousing themselves to an appreciation of the great and vital issues involved in this centennial crisis of our political history. The great daylight demonstration of next Monday will give an unmistakable indication of the strength and popularity of Republican principles in this city and county, and every Republican should do what he can to promote the success of this monster turn-out. All who can should participate in the parade, and the residences and places of business of Republicans along the proposed line of march should be appropriately decorated, as a sign that the old liberty-loving spirit of that other "Seventy-Six" still burns brightly within. Let us make this final rally for law, liberty and loyalty commensurate with the great fundamental principles which it will represent, and two days afterwards we will hold another grand jubilee over the noble victory won.

IN the collection of Bibles in the Centennial Exhibition is a copy of Cromwell's Bible, so-called because he published an edition of such size that each soldier could carry it in his knapsack. On the field at Naseby a dead soldier was found with a copy in his knapsack penetrated by a bullet, which reached that verse in Ecclesiastics, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." It is five inches long, four and a half wide, one and three quarters thick, weighs only eight and a half ounces, and is the property of the American Bible Society. It was printed in 1653 by John Field, printer to Parliament.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY!
The Cordial Balm of Syricum and Tonic Pills.
NERVOUS DEBILITY.
However obscure the cause may be which contribute to render nervous debility a disease so prevalent, affecting, as it does, nearly one-half of our adult population, it is a melancholy fact that day by day, and year by year, we witness a most frightful increase of nervous affections from the slightest neuralgia to the more grave and extreme forms of
NERVOUS PROSTRATION.
characterized by a general languor or weakness of the whole organism, especially of the nervous system, obstructing and preventing the ordinary functions of nature; hence there is a disordered state of the secretions, constipation, scanty and high-colored urine with an excess of earthy or limey sediment, indicative of waste of brain and nerve substance, frequent palpitations of the heart, loss of memory, and marked irresolution of purpose, and inability to carry into action any well defined business enterprise, or to fix the mind upon any one thing at a time. There is great sensitiveness to impress though retained but a short time, with a flickering and fluttering condition of the mental faculties, rendering an individual what is commonly called a whiffle-minded, or fickle-minded man.
This condition of the individual, distressing as it is, may, with a certainty, be cured by
THE CORDIAL BALM OF SYRICUM AND LOTHROP'S TONIC PILLS.
Medicines unrivalled for their wonderful properties and remarkable cures of all Nervous Complaints. Their efficacy is equally great in the treatment and cure of Cancers, Nodes, Ulcers, Pustule, Pimples, Tetter, Fever Sores, Ringworm, Erysipelas, Scald-head, Barbers' Itch, Scurvy, Salt Rheum, Copper-Colored Blotches, Glandular Swelling, Worms and Black Spots in the Flesh, Discolorations, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth and Nose, Sore Legs, and sores of every character, because these medicines are the very best
BLOOD MEDICINE
Ever placed before the people, and are warranted to be the most Powerful Alterative ever originated by man, removing Morbid Sensibility, Depression of Spirits, Dementia, and Melancholia.
Each package of the Cordial Balm contains one box of the Tonic Pills, which may also be had separately at 50 cents per box.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY EVENING, November 3, 1876.

There was rather more activity in the money market to-day, and bankers reported a fair demand for money with the funds in the banks pretty well employed. Bankers, as a general rule, will take no new paper under 9 per cent., while sometimes doing prime bills for their best customers at 8; cases in which paper is done below these rates are exceptional. Eastern exchange was in demand to-day and drafts on New York were worth a slight premium, although no exact rates were quoted. In local stocks and securities no special news is reported. We learn that the stock quotations of the Financial Chronicle which we gave the other day were incorrect in some cases, being quotations of a long time ago, since which bank stocks have decline somewhat, and the quotations of insurance stocks advanced. We will give corrected quotations from authoritative sources next week.

—The cash reserves of the European banks are extraordinarily high at the present time. The Bank of England holds $170,000,000 in coin, the Bank of France $421,000,000, the Imperial Bank of Germany $125,000,000, the Austrian National Bank $68,000,000, the Netherlands Bank $65,000,000, and the National Bank of Belgium $26,000,000. The reserves of the National Banks of the United States are about $100,000,000 in greenbacks at the present time.

Business was moderately active among the wholesale and commission houses to-day, and a fair trade was done in most of the leading staples. Prices generally remained about as previously quoted, and we have no important changes in values to note.

The receipts of the leading articles of produce in this city since our last are as follows:

Flour, bbls........	2,613	Apples, bbls........	1,042
Corn, bus..........	2,890	Cheese, bxs........	400
Wheat, bus........	3,655	Butter, pkgs.......	50
Barley, bus........	3,200	Bacon, tcs.........	22
Rye, bus...........	491	Potatoes, bus......	3,348
Oats, bus..........	9,183	Hay, bales.........	195

The quotations given in the following reports are prices realized in wholesale transactions, unless otherwise specified. On small sales, dealers will charge an advance. Prices of grain, unless stated to the contrary, are free in elevator:

We quote prime white at 37@38c ℔ bushel; mixed 35@36c. Rye is steady and in fair demand at 69@70c. Barley is in liberal supply, and rather weak for spring. We quote at 85c@$1 00 for good to prime spring; prime fall $1 10@1 15. Jobbing sales are made at the usual advance.

Local millers quote their wholesale rates as follows: No. 1 white wheat flour $7 50 ℔ barrel; No. 1 amber do $6 75@7 00; prime red wheat flour $6 25@6 50; in sacks 25c less per barrel. REFINED—There is a little more disposition on the part of purchasers to accede to the asking prices of refiners and a few transactions are reported at quotations. While prices are nominally unchanged the market may be quoted slightly firmer, although the principal purchasers still hold aloof. We quote round lots of five hundred and thousand barrels nominally at 22c; car lots to the home trade at 22¾@23c; Philadelphia and Baltimore deliveries are quoted at 25¼@26c.

IRON MARKETS.

SATURDAY, November 4, 1876. }

The Presidential election and preparations for the contest to come off next Tuesday, has so much occupied the time and attention of our business men the past week that they seem not to have found time to attend to other matters, for we can learn of very few sales of pig metal. Those that are reported show the price to be about the same as last week.

It is hard to say what turn the market may take after the election, but it is generally supposed that there will be an improvement in demand if not in price. We are reported the following sales:

Boats Advertised for This Day.

Brownsville and Geneva.......8 A. M. and 4 P. M.

THE marks last evening indicated four feet four inches and falling slowly. The weather was cloudy and cool. The Granite State made things lively on the wharf.

A NEW name for steamboat barkeepers, "Cocktail Artists."

THE Granite State, Captain Kerr, left for Portsmouth with a good trip.

THE packets on the slackwater leave promptly on time at 8 A. M. and 4 P. M.

THE towboats John Gilmore and Coal City are coming up with big tows of empty barges.

THE present rise will enable the towboats laid up between here and Cincinnati to reach port.

THE Salt Valley will arrive to-morrow, and take her departure on Monday for Ironton and intermediate at ports.

THE weekly packet Emma Graham, Captain Thornburg, leaves Cincinnati to-day for this port. She will return on Wednesday.

ARKANSAS river has thirty inches from the mouth to Pine Bluff, and White river maintains a good packet stage through to Jacksonport.

COAL.—At Louisville there are only eighty-six barges of coal on the market. At Cincinnati there is less than thirty-six barges in first hands.

FROM THE MOUNTAINS.—The Sioux City Journal says: The C. K. Peck will reload for Cheyenne Agency immediately upon her arrival at Yankton from above.

THE fine steamer Fanchon, Captain Sweeney, will arrive this evening and leave for New Orleans on Monday. Freights will be received for her at Patterson's wharfboat.

CAPTAIN CHARLES FAIRMAN, after doing the Centennial, has returned home. He says he had lots of fun and plenty of good grub and expects to be in attendance at the next one.

THE packet Carrie Brooks left for the Manchester docks yesterday afternoon. She will be prepared to leave on her regular day, Tuesday, for Zanesville and intermediate ports.

CAPTAIN NICHOLS' new steamer Florence Meyer, is named for the daughter of Mr. Gabe Meyer, a merchant who annually ships about 4,000 bales of cotton from Pine Bluff. Business, my boy!

THE Philadelphia Price Current says: The restrictions upon vessels arriving from Southern yellow fever ports have not yet been removed, and captains are still obliged to stop at Quarantine.

CINCINNATI.—The following were the amounts of salt received here during the month of October by barges: Roots & Co., 4,230 barrels; by C. M. Holloway, 3,827; by E. P. Rogers, 450. Total, 8,507 barrels.

THE Robert E. Lee went into New Orleans Monday with 4,716 bales of cotton and 4,568 sacks of seed. She ran over a skiff and drowned two men at New Orleans. Capt John Cannon joined her there.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says: We learn that Captain John L. Rhoads, of Pittsburgh, has recently purchased the machinery of an old boat at Memphis to be used in the new boat he contemplates building for the Pittsburgh and St. Louis trade.

THE Brownsville and Geneva Packet Line are about contracting for a new wharfboat. It will be a large size, and contains all the latest and best improvements. This line is the oldest on the river. The new boat will probably be built at California.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal of Wednesday says: The Ohio river yesterday performed the curious feat of rising four feet below the falls and falling two inches above. The exceedingly heavy rains below doubtless contributed to this aqueous inconsistency.

THE Rover, of Gray's Iron Line, discharged 600 barrels of flour at Cincinnati. She has three barges loaded with pig metal, six new street cars for Wheeling, West Virginia, which were built in Cape Girardeau, and a lot of broom corn and grass seed for Pittsburgh.

THE Yankton Press says that arrangements have been made to run a regular freight and passenger packet from Yankton to Fort Pierre another season exclusively in the Black Hills trade, and it is expected that a steamboat will be built the coming winter for that purpose.

THE Fanchon, Captain Sweeney, is en route with the following freight: 100 tons, including 179 bales of cotton, 150 bales of hay and 15 tons of glass. She had 100 tons of iron engaged at Riverton, and expects to get 200 tons at Huntington. Upon arrival at Pittsburgh she will load for New Orleans. Pilots, Thomas and Charles Bobo.

THE Nashville American of Tuesday says: Captain W. P. Harris left here yesterday to take charge of the steamer Alex. Kendall, just launched at Paducah. She has been cut in two, lengthened out from 120 to 150 feet, and the state rooms increased to twenty. As soon as the stage of the river permits she will be placed in the Upper Cumberland trade.

CAPTAIN ALF STEIN says that the Charles Morgan not only makes plenty of steam, but that the "openings" are large enough for the new cylinders, and that he can see no difference in either respect from the old cylinders. He also says that the Morgan's wheel, which the knowing ones predicted was too small, is large enough, and that the Morgan will undoubtedly make better time than with her old cylinders.

THE New Orleans Democrat says: The "Wood jetties," constructed by Captain N. M. Wood, at Snaggy Point, proved a complete success, there being at present between four and five feet of water at that point, where, ten days ago, there was only nineteen inches. The New Orleans and Red River Transportation Company, at whose expense the work was done, deserves the thanks of our people for this exhibition of enterprise.

THE Committee of the Management of the Bureau Veritas has just published the list of maritime disasters reported during the month of August, 1876, concerning all flags: Sailing vessels reported lost 76, viz., 30 English, 4 American, 4 French, 10 German, 5 Norwegian, 8 Dutch, 3 Spanish, 1 Italian, 1 Swedish, 2 Danish, 1 Austrian, 7 of which the nationality is unknown. In this number are included 4 vessels reported missing. Steamers reported lost, 11, viz., 6 English, 2 German, 1 American, 1 Belgian, 1 Portuguese.

THE Memphis Avalanche says: The sunken steamer Rosa Miller is a total wreck and cannot be raised. Everything that can be moved has been taken off except the starboard engine and the boiler. The cabin furniture has been sold to parties ashore living near the wreck. Mr. James Franklin, one of her clerks, has arrived here, and he reports that forty-four bales of cotton are still in the boat's hold. The balance of the freight has all been taken off. The cotton remaining in the hold is consigned to parties here and farther East. Diver Guyre is at the wreck but cannot do anything toward getting it afloat.

THE St. Louis Times says: Rates to New Orleans are fifty cents a barrel for flour and twenty-five cents per hundred for pound freight. Way lots are higher, which fact has caused some talk lately among shippers, but if they had to spend an hour in landing to put out a few barrels of freight, and then carry it up a perpendicular, muddy, slippery bank, they would see wherein boats are justified in charging a little extra. At all events, there is no money in it, and, if our merchants think there is, the river is certainly free to all, and the best boats afloat can be purchased at forty cents on the dollar.

DR. THOS. GRIFFITHS, surgeon in charge of the United States Marine Hospital, at Louisville, reports the following as the condition of the hospital under his charge during the month of October, 1876:

Number of patients remaining the last day of September....................	61
Number of patients admitted during the month of October....................	62

Proclamation

WHEREAS, In and by the thirteenth section of the act of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, passed July 2, 1839, entitled "An act relating to the elections in this Commonwealth," it is enjoined on the Sheriff of every county to give notice of such elections to be held, and enumerate in such notice what officers are to be elected: In pursuance thereof, I, R. H. FIFE, Sheriff of the county of Allegheny, do therefore make known, and give this public notice to the electors of said county of Allegheny, that a General Election will be held in said county on the FIRST TUESDAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, being the seventh day of the month, in the several election districts therein.

And as directed by said thirteenth section of the act of July, 1869, I hereby give notice that every person (excepting the Justices of the Peace), who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States, or this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer, or otherwise a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any city, or Commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for.

And further by the first section of the act of March 31, 1864.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and is hereby enacted by authority of the same, that the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth at all general township, borough and special elections, are hereby hereafter authorized and required to vote by tickets, printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and be labeled outside "Judiciary:" one ticket shall embrace the names of all the State officers voted for, and be labeled "State;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of Senator, member and members of Assembly, if voted for, and member of Congress, if voted for, and be labeled "County;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labeled "Township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all the borough officers voted for, and be labeled "Borough," and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes.

And whereas, by virtue of the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania, adopted December 16, 1873,

Every male citizen 21 years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: First—He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month. Second—He shall have resided in the State one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election. Third—He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election. Fourth—If twenty-two years of age, or upward, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

SEC. 5. Electors shall in all cases except treason, felony and breach of security of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on elections, and in going to and returning therefrom; and

WHEREAS, By the act of Congress of the United States, entitled "An act to amend the several acts heretofore passed, to provide for the enrolling and calling out of the national forces, and for other purposes," and approved March 3, 1865, and all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged or removed from penalty or disability therein provided, are deemed and taken to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights to citizenship, and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizenship thereof; and

WHEREAS, Persons not citizens of the United States are not, under the Constitution and the laws of Pennsylvania, qualified electors of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That in all elections to be held hereafter in this Commonwealth it shall be unlawful for the Judge or Inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions and subject to the disability imposed by said act of Congress, approved March 3, 1868, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot or ballots.

SECTION 2. That if any such Judge or Inspector of election, or any one of them, shall receive, or consent to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any Court of Quarter Sessions in this Commonwealth, shall, for each offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars; and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

SEC. 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid shall at any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof and offer to vote a ballot or ballots, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any Court of Quarter Sessions of the Commonwealth, shall for each offense be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SEC. 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, such persons so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any Court of Quarter Sessions in this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

WHEREAS, By the act of Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, and for other purposes," the first and second sections of which are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all citizens of the United States who are or shall be otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people, in any State, Territory, district, county, city, parish, township, school district, municipality, or other territorial subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, any constitution, law, custom, usage or regulation of any State or Territory, or by or under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 2. Election Boards.

The County Commissioners have rightly decided that the election boards chosen last February are the proper ones to conduct the election next Tuesday. The papers will be issued to them, and to no others.

Allegheny Committees.

The committees on Health, Gas, and Fire Engines and Hose met last night. Nothing was done in either body outside of routine business, except by the committee last named. This committee authorized the purchase of a new steamer to take the place of the Grant, provided the latter be taken in exchange at a fair valuation.

Boy Lost.

Elmer Harrison left his home, corner Robert street and Webster avenue, on the 2d inst. He is fourteen years of age, slightly marked with smallpox, light complexion; wore a dark jeans suit; had on two shirts and two coats, and is supposed to have had three dollars in his pocket. He told several companions the day he was first missed that he was going to Philadelphia; and is thought to have got on a freight train. Any information will be thankfully received by his parents.

Charged with Riot.

Before Alderman Edgar, of Allegheny, John Winkler made information charging Albert Schollner, Wm. Smith, F. Feff, John Stauffner and —— Shoudel with riot. Winkler was driving to the city via the Perrysville road, near Westview, at an early hour on November 1st, and found a fence across the road. He got out to remove it and was attacked by the defendants with stones, pistol and sticks. All but Smith were arrested and held in $1,000 each for a hearing on Thursday evening.

Arrest of a Murderer.

A dispatch was received yesterday from Sheriff Harper, of Brown county, Illinois, stating that Thomas Breen, who killed Peter Hughes, a coal miner, at Walker's Mills, on the Pan Handle Railroad, in September last, had been arrested and lodged in the jail at Mt. Sterling. The prisoner will be brought to this city for trial. Breen and Hughes, it will be remembered, quarrelled about a small sum of money, when the former deliberately shot the latter dead.

City Roads.

At the regular meeting of the Road Committee yesterday afternoon the October pay rolls, as follows, were approved: First district, $164 33; Second district, $295 33; Third district, $379 08.

The following ordinances were affirmatively recommended: Opening Reservoir avenue; assessing cost of bridge over Boundary street on line of Forbes street; the same on Negley's Run on line of Lincoln avenue; opening Centre avenue from Neville street to Liberty avenue; repealing ordinance for sewer on Locust alley from Meyran avenue to Ravine street; assessing damages for grading Ridge street from Thirty-third to Roup streets; granting the Pittsburgh Gas Company the right to lay a switch track on Second avenue; raising the grade on Second avenue and repairing the same by the Pittsburgh Gas Company at their new works; for a sewer on Beach alley from Gist street to Forbes street sewer. Adjourned.

Alleged Malpractice.

A case of malpractice has been developed on the South Side, in which a well known cupper and leecher figures rather disreputably. It appears that Robert Conway, aged fourteen, whose parents reside on Seventeenth street, [illegible] around the Crystal Glass Works end of a post, and lacerated himself in a terrible manner. The boy was barely able to walk home, and steadily became weaker and weaker. Dr. Duff prescribed for the patient, and directed that leeches be applied to the swollen parts. A well known leecher was sent for, but instead of applying himself to the work, he insisted upon treating the case differently, and induced the parents to allow him to perform a surgical operation on the boy. The little sufferer grew worse after this, until last night, when it became necessary to hold a medical consultation. An operation was decided upon, and at once performed. Young Conway yesterday was considerably improved.

COURT NOTES.

The account of John S. Davidson, executor of the estate of Thomas Davidson, Esq., deceased, in the Orphans Court on Wednesday, November 1st, was reported in Thursday's issue of the COMMERCIAL as being postponed until November 11th, which is an error, said account having been confirmed. The error was caused by getting this case confused with another case next to it on the list.

S. C. Stevens brought an action of ejectment, in the Common Pleas No. 2, against Wm. M. Harris and Rebecca Harris for a lot in Union borough, number 2 in the plan laid out by S. C. Stevens.

ELECTION NEWS

To Centennial Passengers

BY THE
BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD.

Arrangements have been made by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad that the latest and most reliable election returns received at the Republican and Democratic Headquarters will be announced to passengers to Philadelphia on excursion trains leaving their depot, corner of Grant and Water streets, on Tuesday (election night) and Wednesday morning, at 8:15 and 8:45. The announcements will be made at Connellsville, Sand Patch and Cumberland.

THE LAST CHARGE.

Further Preparations for Next Monday's Grand Review.

The Glass Manufacturers in Council---Remembrances From the Second Ward and Lawrenceville Ladies---Reports From a Number of Districts---Action of the Wagoners, Draymen and Teamsters, &c., &c.

Scattering returns from a few districts indicate that there will be, at the very lowest estimate, fifteen thousand voters in line on the occasion of next Monday's daylight demonstration. Instead of the disagreeable torches, reeking with nauseating oil and suffocating smoke, the loyal ladies of the county have arranged to furnish each member of a marching club with a handsome boquet, which is intended to supplant the oil cup at the end of the gunstalk. What with the gaily decorated wagons, the elegant uniforms, the floral beauty, the magnificent flags, banners and other pleasing paraphernalia, the spectacle next Monday will be most memorable. Below we give details of the additional arrangements made yesterday:

IMPORTANT ORDER.

The following official order will be rigidly adhered to:

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS,
PITTSBURGH, November 3, 1876.

Transportation must be obtained in all cases by the parties wanting the same for Monday's demonstration. None will be furnished by the Republican County Committee.

J. W. RIDDELL,
Chairman, Committee of Arrangements.

BOQUETS.

Hon. Joseph Mitchell, of the Seventeenth ward, has ordered six hundred boquets which will be presented to the Hayes and Wheeler clubs of the Lawrenceville Batallion, for use on Monday's parade.

The ladies of the Second ward, Pittsburgh, have ordered one thousand boquets for the Division of Major Gus L. Braun.

SEWICKLEY.

Captain Clarke H. Johnson reports that Sewickley borough will turn out a marching club and delegation of citizens of two hundred and upwards.

LAWRENCEVILLE.

Colonel Paul reports that the Lawrenceville battalion will turn out six hundred men on Monday.

THE RUSSELL ERRETT CORPS—A GRACEFUL ACT OF COURTESY.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS,
PITTSBURGH, November 3, 1876.

The Russell Errett Marching Corps will assemble at Old City Hall, Market street, (Duquesne Greys Armory), at 9:30 A. M., Monday, November 6, 1876, for formation. All members are requested to be promptly on hand at the above named place, the hall having been placed at the disposal of the corps through the courtesy of Colonel P. N. Guthrie.

SYLVANUS A. BARR, Marshal.

HEADQRS. RUSSELL ERRETT MARCHING CLUB,
OLD CITY HALL, MARKET STREET,
PITTSBURGH, November 3, 1876.

1. The Russell Errett Marching Corps will assemble at Old City Hall, Market street, at 9:30 A. M. Monday, November 6, 1876.
2. The East End Battalion will be under the command of Captain W. F. Aull.
3. The South Side battalion will be under the command of Hon. J. N. Schaffer.
4. The Old City Battalion will be under the command of Captain Lee.
5. The battalion commanders will report to the Marshal at headquarters as soon as possible the number of men that they will have in line, and see that their commands are ready to move promptly at 10 o'clock A. M.

SYLVANUS A. BARR, Marshal.

THE GLASS MEN IN COUNCIL.

A meeting of the glass manufacturers of the city was held at the office of Messrs. Bakewell, Pears & Co., South Side, on Thursday at 2:30 P. M.

D. C. Ripley, Esq., was called to the chair, and Thomas Pears, Esq., chosen as Secretary.

Mr. Adams, of the firm of Adams & Co., moved that the glass manufacturers suspend operations on Monday in order to take part in the Republican demonstration on that day. The motion was unanimously adopted.

It was also resolved that the glass men turn out as a separate delegation with their wagons, with their employees, etc.

Mr. Andrew Bryce, of Bryce, Walker & Co., moved that a committee of three be appointed to make all necessary arrangements.

The Chair appointed Jenkin Jones, Esq., of Campbell, Jones & Co., D. C. Ripley, of Ripley & Co., and James E. Duncan, of Duncan, Sons & Co., as such committee.

Adjourned.

THE NORTH SIDE DIVISION.

The captains of marching clubs of Allegheny (North Side Division) are requested by John Megraw, Grand Marshal, to report to Captain W. M. Claney, Mail office, this (Saturday) morning before ten o'clock the number of boquets wanted for each company. The boquets will not be ready for delivery until after three o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Mail office.

OLD CITY DIVISION.

Gus. L. Braun, the Marshal of the First Grand Division, in his general order for the procession on Monday next, omitted naming the Eleventh ward colored club, the Thirteenth ward Invincible club, Captain Campbell, and the Fourteenth ward clubs. Also, the name of Major D. W. Lewellyn and Henry Rouswinkle, as his aids.

Reports have been received from the districts mentioned below, indicating the quota of equipped men who will take part therefrom in next Monday's demonstration:

Union township, 140 men; Sewing machine men, 75 men; Ohio township, 75 men; Verona club, 150 men; West Liberty, 50 men; Swissvale, 10 mule teams, devices &c.; Natrona, 75 men; Armstrong Station, 90 men; Elizabeth, 90 men; Turtle Creek, 135 men; Millvale, 150 men; Ninth and Tenth wards, 200 men; Mansfield and Chartiers boroughs 200—equipped; Major G. An adjourned meeting of the wagoners, draymen, teamster and horsemen of the old city was held last evening at Republican headquarters to complete the arrangements for the grand display on Monday next.

John Boyd, Esq., was again called to the chair, and Mr. J. A. Musgrave acted as Secretary.

The chairman stated the object of the meeting, and presented a communication from Major Gus. L. Braun, extending an invitation to the wagoners, draymen, teamsters and horsemen to join the Old City Division, and occupy the second post of honor, the left of column.

The communication was received, and the invitation accepted.

After a further interchange of views, it was resolved that this portion of the First Grand Division, should be constituted as follows:

Resolved, That merchants, manufacturers and owners of horses who are favorable to the Republican candidates, be requested to furnish the use of their horses to their employees to participate in the grand daylight demonstration on next Monday.

Adjourned.

A CONSIDERATE ORDER.

Chief Marshal Hays has issued an order to the Division Marshals to have the bands cease playing during the march from Chatham street to Washington street. This order was made through consideration for Mr. Steen, the gentleman who had his legs crushed at the Pittsburgh and St. Louis railroad siding, near Try street, in rescuing a child in danger of being run over. He suffered an amputation of one of his limbs, and lies in a very critical condition.

THE WELSH CLUBS.

At a meeting of the representatives of the Welsh clubs and citizens held in the office of T. W. Davis, Esq., last evening, the reports from all quarters were favorable to a grand demonstration on Monday. The South Side Welsh Republican Association, Soho, Lawrenceville and Woods Run reported that they would have large delegations from their respective places. Mr. T. W. Davis was chosen Chief Marshal of the Welsh Battalion. The staff officers will be announced in evening papers.

THE GRAND CENTRAL, ALLEGHENY.

The members of the Grand Central Battalion of Allegheny, Major W. C. Cooke, commanding, met last evening and decided to wear cap, cape, white gloves, leggins, and boquet in right hand. This battalion will meet again to-night to make further preparations for the parade on Monday next.

Reformers at Sewickley.

Our correspondent "Fax," writing from Sewickley, says: The reformers (?) turned out here in full force Thursday night. There must have been an immense number in line, as the procession was exactly nine minutes passing a given point. There was a large number of Democrats from your city, who took no part in the procession, being otherwise engaged, in a reform movement on the houses of citizens who were out looking at the display.

DUTIES OF SUPERVISORS.

Mr. H. D. Gamble, the Chief Supervisor of Elections, has got out a circular for transmission to the district supervisors, informing them of the duties of their office and what is expected of them. Among other things the circular says:

"You are authorized and required to attend at all times and places when the names of registered voters may be marked for challenge, and to personally scrutinize and inspect such registry.

"You are required to challenge any vote offered by any person whose legal qualification you may doubt; to be, and remain, where the ballot boxes are kept, at all times after the poles are opened, until every vote has has been counted, the canvass of all votes polled completed, and the proper and requisite certificates of returns made.

"To personally inspect and scrutinize, from time to time, and at all times, on the day of election, the manner in which the voting is done, and the way and method in which the poll-books, registry lists, and tallies or check-books are kept.

"To personally scrutinize, count and canvass each ballot cast, whatever may be the indorsement on the ballot, or in whatever box it may have been placed or found.

"On the day of election to take, occupy and remain in such position, from time to time, whether before or behind the ballot boxes, as will in your judgment best enable you to see each person voting.

"At the closing of the polls you are required to place yourself in such position, in relation to the ballot-boxes, for the purpose of engaging in the work of canvassing the ballots, as will enable you to fully perform your duties in respect to such canvass; and shall there remain until every duty in respect to such canvass, certificates, returns and statements have been wholly completed."

The circular also stipulates that in case of any interference with the supervisor in the discharge of his duties he shall call on a deputy marshal, if there be one present, to arrest the party or parties interfering, or in case no marshal be at hand then the supervisor shall make return of the facts of the case, under oath, to the chief supervisor within ten days after election.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

IN ON THE HOME STRETCH.

The Republican torchlight procession at Monongahela City to-night promises to be an immense affair. Quite a number of clubs from this city will participate, among others the Second ward club, whose members are invited to meet this evening at 150 First avenue at seven o'clock. Transportation via the Pittsburgh, Virginia and Charleston Railroad.

AN OUTRAGE ON THE FLAG.

On last Tuesday evening, just before the Republican meeting at Mansfield, a large flag was stretched across Main street by a prominent Republican from his own store to a building on the other side. Soon afterwards Christ. Keisling, a rank Democrat of that place, rode under the flag and, standing up in his wagon, he caught the bottom of the banner and maliciously tore it to the top—tearing it exactly in two. He was arrested, and Mr. M. Frederick, the gentleman who put up the flag, made a charge of malicious mischief against him before 'Squire Glenn, of Mansfield. The defendant waived a hearing and gave bail for court. The flagrant outrage is its own best comment.

THE MT. WASHINGTON PROCESSION.

The torchlight procession Tuesday last on Mt. Washington was a most creditable demonstration. It was participated in by the Thirty-second ward marching club, the Pioneer club of the same ward, the club from the Thirty-third ward, and the First and Second ward clubs of the old city, together with the W. J. Mathews Glee club. The clubs had brass bands in the line and made a very creditable display, marching over a long route, notwithstanding the mud was ankle deep. The Republicans of the "Mount" had their houses decorated and illuminated, and among those who made a prominent display were Councilman Goldthrope, Nathan Brokaw, S. L. Cuthbert and others.

VARIOUS MEETINGS.

This evening there is to be a torchlight procession in the borough of Sharpsburg, and a mass meeting of Republicans will be held at the West Penn Railroad station. Addresses are to be delivered by Thomas M. Marshall, R. B. Carnahan and others. The citizens of the boroughs intend to decorate and illuminate their houses, and the demonstration is expected to be one of the largest ever held in Sharpsburg.

Large and enthusiastic meetings were held on Thursday evening at Dravosburg and Turtle Creek.

RALLY AT EMSWORTH.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of Ohio and Kilbuck townships was held at Emsworth school house, on Thursday evening, at which it was resolved to turnout en masse on Monday next. Mr. George W. Crawford was appointed Marshal, and James Morrow, John Shannon, William Cunningham, Hiram Crawford, Albert Arthurs, John P. Dean and Marion Gilleland aids.

A DEMOCRATIC SCHEME FRUSTRATED.

A nice little Democratic scheme has just come to grief at Midway, Washington county. There are a great many miners in that section, a number of whom are adherents of the "Labor Reform" party. The Democratic leaders lately paid the taxes of some fifteen of these, but kept the tax receipts in their own possession. The miners becoming convinced that the "Labor reform" movement was simply a Democratic movement in disguise, refused to become the catspaws of any such conspiracy, and announced their intention of voting the Republican ticket. Upon this, the holders of the tax receipts sneeringly informed these honest-minded, but poor, workingmen that they would not be allowed to vote, inasmuch as they were unable to pay their taxes themselves, and because the receipts would be destroyed. The Township Treasurer, however, who is a square Republican, got wind of the affair, and has supplied, or will supply, duplicate receipts in each instance. Thus there is a Republican gain of fifteen at Midway, already, and the attempted sharp practice of the Democratic "reformers" bids fair to swell the number up into the hundreds.

Robberies at Sewickley.

Mr. Silvers, a merchant tailor of Sewickley, with his wife and family, was out Thursday night watching the Reformers wading through the mud, locking his house, as he thought securely, but when he returned to his domicile two pairs of pants, two coats, one vest, a gold watch and a quantity of greenbacks were missing. He thinks he will stay at home the next time they have so many scalawags visiting that village. Several other houses were overhauled, but not many valuables were secured that we could hear of. The high constable of the borough, whose residence is in a very retired part of the town, was favored with a visit from the light-fingered gentry, but nothing of value was stolen.

THIS is to give notice that all citizens troubled with Cough or Cold should at once procure a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

Boston "One Price" Clothing House, No. 95 Smithfield Street.

Persons in search of winter clothing will do well to call at this establishment and inspect the large stock of fashionable goods there displayed. TOO GAUZY.

Mr. J. H. McCreery Afraid to Face the Music in a Joint Discussion with Col. Joseph S. Haymaker.

The subjoined correspondence is so suggestive and self-explanatory that we publish it without comment.

SEWICKLEY, PA., November 2, 1876.

To the Officers and Members of the Seventh Ward Hayes and Wheeler Club:

GENTLEMEN—Your challenge was received and accepted, and put in the hands of Chairman Dickson for arranging details, etc. But on further consideration the Executive Committee, being fully satisfied with the results of the former discussion, had not deemed it advisable to renew it, and withdrew the acceptance. Mr. J. H. McCreery's engagements would make it very inconvenient for him to participate; besides the crowd which would be likely to gather for such discussion would, we think, make it unprofitable. Yours, etc.,

TILDEN REFORM CLUB,
F. C. OSBURN, Secretary.

PITTSBURGH, PA., November 3, 1876.

To Tilden Reform Club, Sewickley, Pa.:

GENTLEMEN—Yours of November 2d, withdrawing your acceptance of challenge of Joseph S. Haymaker, Esq., to J. H. McCreery, Esq., to discuss the present campaign issues in City Hall, Pittsburgh, this evening, received and read.

After deliberation we think your action in so withdrawing a very wise procedure, so far as we are able to calculate probable consequences, and have no doubt but that the discussion would have been very unprofitable.

Your suggestion intimating danger from the "crowd likely to assemble on that occasion" we do not understand, but as we have no knowledge of any Democratic meeting having been disturbed in this campaign, we do not think that the Republicans who might have been present would in any way have interfered with the joint discussion.

Yours etc.,
J. D. MCFARLAND,
(Captain) Commanding
Seventh Ward Hayes and Wheeler Club.

PITTSBURGH, PA., November 3, 1876.

Editor of the Commercial:

Is it true, as currently reported this evening, that J. H. McCreery, formerly of Beaver, withdrew from the joint debate advertised for this evening in the Old City Hall, in order to prepare himself to take up the gauntlet thrown down by John McKee, Esq., and discuss with that eminent philosopher political questions, the nigger included—is it so?

ANXIOUS INQUIRER.

[It is alas! only two times true.—ED.]

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Library Hall.

The last performances by Miss Dargon and her admirable company will be given this afternoon and evening. At the matinee "The School for Scandal" will be played, Miss Dargon as Lady Teazle; and in the evening "Macbeth," with that lady in the character of Lady Macbeth.

Monday evening will be signalized by the first appearance in this city of the phenomenal actress, Miss Mary Anderson. Seats can be secured, either at the box-office at Library Hall, or at Hale's music store, 103 Smithfield street.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

Mr. George Fawcett Rowe has amused large crowds during the week at the Opera House, in his own play entitled "Brass." It is very funny, and always clean and pure. Two more performances of the piece will be given—at this afternoon's matinee, and this evening. By the way, to-night is another "People's Night," when popular prices will prevail.

Next Monday evening Mr. Sothern, the unsurpassed comedian, will commence an engagement, opening with "Our American Cousin," supported by Mr. Gotthold, Mr. Stockwell and the company.

Beethoven Society Concert.

The concert of the Beethoven Society at the Pittsburgh Female College was well attended and gave much enjoyment to all lovers of choice music. Among the choicest selections rendered were the "Improvisation" from Taunhauser, the finale of which is one of the sweetest and purest bits of sentimental composition that we have ever heard, and which was rendered on the piano with much skill and feeling by Professor Zitterbart. Mr. Edwards' songs, "The Evening Star," from Wagner, and "The Tear," were finely rendered and generally applauded. The Scotch Suite for violin, violoncello and piano was also a performance of much merit. The concert was, on the whole, quite a successful opening of what bids fair this season to be a very interesting series of entertainments.

CITY MATTERS IN BRIEF.

GEORGE FROST was committed for thirty days as a vagrant, by Mayor McCarthy, yesterday.

FOUR HUNDRED cigars were stolen by some boys from Jenkinson's tobacco and cigar wagon.

THE Boatman's Insurance Company sustained a loss of $2,500 by the burning of A. A. Miller's oil and varnish warehouse, in St. Louis, last night. The total loss was $25,000, insured for $19,000.

THE Allegheny Poor Board held its regular monthly meeting last night. After hearing the reports of the Superintendent and Clerk, which contained nothing of public interest, the Board adjourned.

Two safes in the office of Alex. Patterson, lumber merchant, corner of Preble avenue and Juniata street, Allegheny, were blown open by burglars Thursday night, but the rascals realized nothing for their trouble.

ALL the road district appropriations are exhausted excepting the Second. It has about seven hundred dollars to its credit, and as it is well paved that sum will be ample for repairs during the balance of the fiscal year.

THE hearing in the case of Charles McClure, colored, charged with the larceny of $150 from William Bryce, the French Indian, from Mercer county, took place yesterday before Mayor McCarthy, and resulted in defendant's committal for trial.

SAUL and Julius Stoker and Ambrose Whalen, charged with the larceny of a lot of iron from Dilworth, Porter & Co., on the South Side, had a hearing before Mayor McCarthy yesterday, and were lodged in jail to await trial in default of bail.

FIRE MARSHAL LIVINGSTON reports that the South Side fire originated from the coals from an oven which had been used for baking purposes, and not by an incendiary torch, as at first supposed. Twenty-five hundred dollars will cover the loss, and it is insured.

TEDDY WICKHAM, the party charged with feloniously assaulting Bryant Naugton at Sharpsburg, on Monday evening, fracturing his skull by means of a clinker, has been arrested and released on bail, in the sum of $1,000, for his appearance. Naughton will recover.

MRS. VAN COTT will close her revival meetings in this city to-morrow (Sunday) evening. This (Saturday) evening she will deliver a temperance address. Sunday morning at 10¼ o'clock special sermon to young converts; evening at 7¼ o'clock, farewell sermon.

A little girl named Ellen Hennesy, who was arrested some days since for the larceny of jewelry, was discharged by Mayor McCarthy yesterday, it having been clearly proven that she was not at the place where the jewelry was at the time it was alleged to have been stolen.

LIEUT. FOSTER, of the Third Cavalry, has been ordered from Red Cloud Agency to Fort Fetterman, with his troops, and will shortly receive four months' leave of absence, which he is entitled to after the Crook campaign. He was formerly Adjutant of the Greys.

THE following returns have been made by the Deputy Mayors: Deputy Mayor Bradley, fifteen cases; cash receipts, $49 65. Deputy Mayor King, forty-one cases; receipts, $56 25. Deputy Mayor Martin, thirty cases; receipts, $62. Deputy Mayor Hoerr, forty cases; receipts, $72 70. The whole number of cases reported, including those at the Central Station, 687; total receipts, $1,280 59.

CONDUCTOR PERMAN had charge of the special train upon which Carl Schurz made the quick trip to Dennison, Ohio, Thursday night. The train left the Union Depot at 8:13, two hours behind the Limited Mail, and overtook the latter after a run of ninety-three miles, making, it is said, the fastest time ever made on the Panhandle road. There are sixty bridges and culverts and nine tunnels on the route, at each of which the train had to reduce its speed. The rate of speed at times exceeded a mile per minute.

THE managers of the Young Women's Boarding Home, gave a supper on Thursday evening, at the home, No. 33 Anderson street, Allegheny. The rooms were tastefully decorated. The tables were beautifully arranged, and were covered with the choicest viands. The choir of the North Avenue M. E. church was present, and discoursed some of their sweetest music. The managers deserve great praise for their persevering efforts to keep this institution in such an excellent condition.

THE Shakespeare Club from this city visited Dixmont Hospital on Thursday evening and entertained the patients with the play of "Lady of Lyons." Dr. Reed, Superintendent of the hospital, after the close of the performance, gave the members of the club an elegant repast, and they returned to the city on the Erie express highly delighted with the trip. During the performance and at the close of the last act the patients brought Mrs. Dr. Sadler in front of the curtain and as she appeared with "Claud Melnotte," (Mr. McCaffery), she was loudly and rapturously applauded. The club will shortly produce Richelieu at the Academy of Music, Dr. Keyser appearing as the "Cardinal."
